New Yorks Suffer Defeat Again to Cleveland, but the Baltimores Were Benten and Ward's Team is Sill Eighth-The Chienges Are Hight on the Heels of These Clubs, However, Being but Nine Points Behind New York - Gossip,

The Brooklyns took a big drop restorday. They were beaten by St. Louis and fell from third to fifth place, as Pittsburgh outplayed the Washingtons and Cleveland gave New York another knock-out blow. Pittsburgh and Cleveland are on even terms for third place, with the former a slight favorite. The race between Philadelphia and Boston for the lead is still very close, there being but one game's difference between them. Both won yesterday by speedy playing. Anson's Colts, by the way. are right upon the heels of New York and Baltimore, and may pass both of them at any time. The results: Cleveland, 6; New York, 2.

St. Louis, 3; Brooklyn, 2. Boston, 7; Cincinnati, 6. Philadelphia, 9; Louisville, 5.

Cincinnatt ... 31 35 .484 Louisvilla ... 18 25 CLEVELAND, 6; NEW YORK, 2. CLEVELAND, July 14.-Cleveland could not help but win the game to-day. Everything seemed to play into the hands of the home club. In the first place, Young was in magnificent form, and in addition to that he had the very best kind of support. There was not the semblance of an error made by the local team, and the New Yorks were undoubtedly the victims of hard luck, for time and again the Cleveland infielders seemed to glory in pulling down what seemed to be safe hits. For in stance. Stafford hit one liner to McKean, who jumped into the air and just managed to bring the ball down with one hand. When Connor was on third in the fifth Burke lined a hot hit squarely into McKean's hands, and all the Cleveland short stop had to do was to throw to third base and make a double play. It went that way all through the game. No matter where or how hard the New Yorks batted the ball somebody was bound to get in the way of it.

ball somebody was bound to get in the way of it.

Cleveland should have had more runs than the got, and the only reason why it did not was because of the remarkable pitching of Jones. He filled the bases in three innings by giving bases on balls, and then pitched so well that the Clevelands could not get hits and the side was retired. In the first two innings the Clevelands were retired with the bases filled and not a run over the rubber. That could not last forever, and in the third Cleveland took Jones's measure and knocked out five runs. There was some good balting, but the buses on balls reality counted against the New York pitcher more than anything else. Ward tried him another inning, and although the Clevelands got the same combination again, that is, the bases filled, they could not bat well enough to got the runs bome. Ward thought he would not try fate any longer, and put Dayles in the to get the runs home. Ward thought he would not try late any longer, and put Davies in the box in the fifth, and he pitched great ball. The score:

ST. LOUIS, 3; RECOKLYN, 2.

ST. LOUIS, July 14.—Twelve incings under a torrid sun was necessary to-day for the Browns to win one of the most exciting games of the season. Brodie, who batted in the winning run, is the most popular man in St. Louis to-night, and Bannon, whose timely hit in the eighth put the Browns in the lead, also enjoys the sphemeral glory of a victor. Throughout it was a magnificent contest, abounding in brilliant plays. Both pitchers settled down at the start for a hard contest, and both were very effective, keeping the hits well scattered. The individual fielding was prilliant. Daily adcepted nine chances, having seven assists, without an error. Corcoran missed one of eleven opportunities, but the error netted St. Louis nothing. For the home team, Dowd, Quinn, and Crooks did excellent work. In the deventh inning Bannon wrenched his leg and was succeeded by Clarkson, and in the last inning Hiebardson went after a high foul but could not reach it. When it struck the ground ST. LOUIS, 3; BROOKLYN, 2. ning Richardson went after a high foul but sould not reach it. When it struck the ground it made an erratic bound, striking the third baseman in the nose hard enough to send him out of the game. Schoch was sent in from right field and Crane was sent out to cover that region. The score:

The Pilgrim Ready for Her Trial Trip. Boston, July 14 .- It is now practically certain that the Stewart and Birney cup defender Pilgrim will sail on her trial trip to-morrow at about noon. The yacht will have a large party aboard, as almost the whole of the syndicate and many of their acquains ances will be on her. She will be towed down to the light, and will then try her heels outside in the bay, probably going to Marbiehead at the end of her trial. Things were looking decidedly lively aboard her this morning. Almost the whole crew were on hand and were busy about the decks giving them the finishing touches and putting down the few cleats which had not already been placed in position. Her deck work is now about all ready, and the wheel, which arrively year striay, has been set up. Her standing rigging and top-mast hamper is all in place and set up, and the mast beam set. head runners and back strys are ready to receive their blocks.

The steam lighter Merchant came up the harbor this morning, brunging the main boom, spinnaker boom, topsail poles, and also a lot of miscellaneous truck. Capt Sheriock says that those who expected to see improundt brushes between the Pilgrim and the Jubilee will be disappointed. Although both boats will probably be in this vicinity all summer, they will keep earefully apart, and there will be no opportunity to judge of their relative speed otherwise than by making deductions from their trains with other boats until tiesy come together in the fall races.

Trap Shooting at Coney Island.

Some lively trap shooting matches took place at Copey Island yesterday, between C. E. Morris, th President of the Atlantic Rod and Gun Club and B. 7 first arranged to hold a triangular race between the two first named and John Collins, but the latter did not put in an appearance until a late hour.

The first match began at 10 o'clock between Langeake and Morris, twenty-five birds each, 500 a side. Morris won by the score of 23 to 22.

The second match, under the same conditions, resulted in a tie, both shooting 22 each.

In the third match Collins showed up find joined in with his $50 and made matters, erry lateresting, tiering birth his birds and made matters, erry lateresting, tiering had given out, another match will be shot off next Friday, when the stakes will be doubled.

NO STAKES ON THE PROGRAMME, WHICH WAS EXTREMELY LIGHT.

The Talent Successful in Five Out of Six Reces, and the Bookmakers Lost Heavily -Joe Kelly and Ajax Pall Into Soft Places -Another Race for Termenter-Dorlan Was the Only Surprise of the Afternoon. Although the programme for Monmouth

Park yesterday was light in the extreme, there was a very fair crowd in attendance, and, as favorites won every race but one, the regulars had a very good day of it, the bookmakers were compelled to do business on the events losing heavily almost to a man. The ain of Thursday night left the track a trifle slow, while the gray clouds hung low. as though ready for another downpour. With Kingston out of the opening race, a dash of five furlongs, the public made Tor-mentor favorite, the old Californian having shown marked improvement of late. White Rose, Tormentor, and Topgallant, the last named fresh from the Pacific slope, made the running in the early part of the contest. Overton landing the favorite in front by a length and a half from the rank outsider Topgallant, who showed a lot of speed. Ambulance secured third money under punishment.

Gloaming and Joe Kelly were the only starters for the second race, a handleap at one mile and a sixteenth. They were equal favorites when the betting began, but the bulk of the money went on Kelly, and the price against Miller's little breadwinner shortened very rapidly. Gloaming held Joe Kelly until the turn was reached, but at that point Hamilton gave the favorite rein, and the race was over, the son of John Happy drawing away and winning in a gallop.

Discount was the unanimous choice of the talent for the third event, an allowance race that fitted the Kentucky colt admirably. Two to 1 on was the very best figure quoted in the ring, and the ease with which Midgley shook off the field at the end of the first three furwere about when they put their money down. Aurelian, a troublesome customer at the start, showed speed for half a mile, but he quickly cried enough when the pinch came. Little Pirate securing second money in a drive from Equation. longs proved that the faithful knew what they Equation.

Ajax in the fourth race was another certainty, the crack three-year-old meeting Harvest at even weights and catching Astoria at a five-pound disadvantage, figuring by the new rules of the Board of Control. Every-hody bet on Ajax, and the colt won hands down, with Astoria second and Harvest three.

Speculation, fresh from Brighton Beach, was the choice for the fifth race, a selling affair, at one mile and a sixteenth, and, although challenged by The Ironmaster in the most determined manner at the head of the stretch, Judge Newton's big horse won very cleverly. The Ironmaster beat Best Brand with ease for second money.

The Honmaster beat Beat Brand with ease for second money.

The Ranceas representative, Indra. with Hamilton up, was the favorite for the lastrace. The brother to Carroll was never dangerous, Mr. Macdonough's Dorlan making a hare-and-hounds scramble of it and winning with a lot to spare. Despot, under the whip, beat the Mamie B. filly for second money.

It was only play for Ajax to beat Astoria and Harvest. The Ironmaster made a bold bid for the fifth race in the homestretch. Mr. Galway didn't like the way Blake rode Lustre in the first race. Joe Kelly was a certainty on public form. The little horse revels in mud.

THE GREAT ECLIPSE STAKES,

The Rivals Orme and La Fleche Meet as

London, July 14.—The race at Sandown Park to-day for the Eclipse Stakes was one of the most interesting turf events that have taken place this year in England. The meeting of the Duke of Westminster's four-year-old colt Orme, by Ormonde, out of Angeliea, winner of last year's Derby, and Beron de Hirsch's fouryear-old brown filly La Fleche. by St. Simon, out of Quiver, winner of a number of great races last year, and considered the greatest mare bred in England for years, was looked forward to with great eagerness as settling the question of the supremacy between the two famous racers. Each had many supporters, and a large amount of money was bet on the result. The other starters were Baron de Rothschild's three-year-old colt Medicia by Robert the Devil or Florentine. out of Skatzka, Mr. John Charlton's May Duke (late May Morn II.), Col. North's Diablo, and Mr. Douglas Baird's Silene. The last betting was even money against La Fleche, 2 to 1 against Orme, 9 to 1 against May Duke, 20 t l against Medicis, 66 to 1 against Diablo, and 200 to 1 against Silene.

The race was a fine one. The horses got awny to a good start, May Duke in front. They had not got far from the starting post before El Diablo overhauled the leader and passed him. El Diablo set the pace, with May Duke, Orme, and La Fleche in the order named, close up, and Bilene away in the rear, but still ahead of Medicis. As they passed the pay gates La Fleche moved up into second place, but held it for only a short time. May Duke's jockey gave him his head, and the colt quickly passed La Fleche. El Diablo was still making the running, but May Duke started for him, and they had not gone far when May Duke was in front, with El Diablo, La Fleche, Orme, and Medicis running behind in the order named.

When the rails were reached, May Duke found the pace too hot, and La Fleche was also showing signs of distress. Orme running well in hand, here took advantage of the troubles of the leaders, and straightening out, sprang in front, and was not afterward headed. At the distance post, however, Medicis ineffectually challenged the leader. Orme came in splendidly, and won the race, amid great enthusiasm, by half a length from Medicis. La Fleche inishing third, three lengths away.

The conditions of the race are:

TWO RACES FOR DALY. Father Bill Keeps Up His Winning Strenk at the Beach,

A very fair attendance saw some interesting sport at Brighton Beach yesterday. The talent and the bookmakers quit en about even terms at the close of the day. Mr. McLaughlin's starting was rather faulty. It is not always possible to give entire satisfaction in the difficult and trying position of starter, but the flag should not be dropped to as many bad starts in one day as happened yesterday. The opening race at five furlongs brought out a field of very uncertain performers. Adjust was conceded favorite at 2 to 1, Lawrence Dexter and Virginia II. being about equal second choices. The flag was lowered to a good start, and Virginia II. led the route. Adjust ran very gamely at the finish, but the chestnut gelding held him safe, winning by a length. Adjust was second, ten lengths before Marionette.

Hindoomere was liberally backed to win the second race, at three-quarters of a mile, and it proved a very easy victory. After considera-ble delay they got the flag leaving Violetta. well-supported second choice, at the post. West Park was pacemaker to the turn into the homestretch, where Hindoomere closed up and led to the finish, winning handily by two lengths. West Park got second money by three lengths from Edith. Nine starters faced the flag in the third race. for three-year-olds at three-quarters of a mile. Billy Lakeland's filly Faithful, winner of a good for three-year-olds at three-quarters of a mile, Billy Lakeland's filly Faithful, winner of agood race a week ago over the same track, was the favorite. The Upronr colt showed the way in the first furiong, where Faithful took command and led to the end, winning in a driving finish by three parts of a length from the Uproar colt. Wallace beat the Clio colt for third money in a hard drive.

In the fourth race Sue R. ran away a mile and a half. Phyllis T. then took a trip around the course by way of diversion, and ten minutes later repeated the performance, causing an endless amount of amusement for the occupants of the grand stand. The start was bad, the horses getting away in the worst shape imaginable. Pansy had the lead and lost no time improving her position, and going up the backstretch the Daly colors were in the van. with two ozen lengths botween the chestnut filly and the second horse. War Cry made a strong showing in the last furlong, but Pansy had the race safe and finished a head in Iront of War Cry. Saladin was third, a length away.

but Pansy had the race sate and finished a head in front of War Cry. Saladin was third, a length away.

Bolero was heavily plunged on in the fifth race, at one mile, at the short price of 7 to 5, but was never dangerous throughout. The start was a very poor one, Airplant having the best of it. As they turned at the lower end of the track King Crab was in front, and the old fellow kept the lend to the three-quarter pole, where Airplant again challenged him and got the best of the struggle, winning a pretty race by a length. Cottonade in a drive secured by a length. Cottonade in a drive secured to the struggle on the sixth race, and foreclosed it by sending Gold Dollar and Lallah to the post, the latter being declared to win. Fidget was in front at the start, but retired in the first furlong in favor of Jno. McGarrigle. At the three-quarter pole Gold Dollar went to the front and opened a gap of two lengths around the upper turn. In the homestretch he had shaken off the field by several lengths, and Lamly in the last furlong drew up to allow Lallah, who was running second, to win, but Gold Dollar, although slowed up, could not be restrained and crossed the line half a length in front of Lallah, who beat Fidget a length for the place. It was a fine piece of engineering, but failed to work to William's satisfaction, the old man having placed his limit on Lallah to win. Summary:
